

HARITIMA CHAUHAN
Northern Illinois University, DeKalb IL 60115

SUMMARY OF TEACHING EVALUATIONS

Questions	Fall 2017	Fall 2017	Spring 2015	Spring 2014
Course	Intermediate Macroeconomics (Section 1)	Intermediate Macroeconomics (Section 2)	Principles of Microeconomics	Principles of Microeconomics
Class size	20	18	49	50
Questions relevant to instructor's performance
07. Instructor's motivation of student interest and enthusiasm for the subject.	1.50	1.69	2.00	2.60
08. Instructor maintain an atmosphere in which students are encouraged to ask questions.	1.25	1.46	2.00	2.45
09. Instructor's efforts to discern if the class understand the material being presented.	1.58	1.69	2.07	2.50
10. Instructor's demonstrated knowledge of the class material.	1.42	1.46	1.72	2.20
11. Instructor's willingness to help students both inside and outside of the classroom.	1.25	1.62	1.79	2.30
12. Instructor's fairness in evaluating student performance.	1.42	1.54	1.90	2.15
13. Instructor's openness to diverse points of view.	1.25	1.46	1.97	2.40
14. Suggested texts or readings reinforce the class lectures and examinations.	1.92	1.85	2.52	2.60
15. Instructor's design of examinations in relation to the materials presented in the course.	1.67	1.85	2.38	2.55
16. Instructor's ability to transmit material in a way that sheds light on your understanding.	2.17	1.77	2.45	2.85
17. Overall rating of this instructor compared to other NIU instructors.	1.58	1.77	2.24	3.05
18. Was the instructor available during his/her office hours.	1.08	1.08	1.17	1.15
19. This course was taught in a way that challenged me intellectually.	1.50	1.62	2.07	2.30
20. I would recommend this instructor to a friend.	1.33	1.77	2.00	3.25
Subgroup average	1.49	1.62	2.02	2.45

*This is a summary version mentioning the questions relevant to instructor's performance. Complete evaluations are available on request.

The teaching evaluations for the classes in Spring 2018 will be available on completion.

Selected Feedback:

Intermediate Macroeconomics - Fall 2017

"Lecture notes are great she puts a lot of effort into them & the class."

"Haritima is and excellent instructor. She shows a genuine interest in her students, and is very approachable."

Principles of Microeconomics - Spring 2015

"Your energy and understanding of the material made this course very enjoyable and engaging through out the semester."

"I really enjoyed having you as a teacher! You always made sure everyone understood what was going on and always provided examples to allow people to have a better understanding! Great Job!"

"She always seemed really interested in what we were discussing. She strongly encouraged students to ask questions at any time and was always willing to help."

Principles of Microeconomics - Spring 2014

"I enjoyed having you as an instructor. You were always helpful in understanding hard material."